

LE BRISTOL
PARIS

Welcome

Le Bristol Paris is a pearl of the Oetker Collection. From our elegant address on rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré, we present the truest sense of French luxury. Le Bristol is distinguished with the elite accolade of Parisian Palace and is home to four Michelin stars. The hotel has been in the hands of just two families since opening in 1925, and our close team, including our exquisite white Birman cats, Fa-Raon and Kléopatre, always give our guests the warmest welcome.

Destination

Located on the prestigious rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré, Le Bristol is a few minutes from L'Elysée presidential palace and surrounded by Parisian haute couture. Our concierge will arrange swift entrance to the Louvre and reservations at nearby L'Opera. They are always delighted to introduce lesser known gems of the City of Lights, such as the Grand Musée du Parfum, reserve exclusive views of private collections including Musée Jacquemard André, or organise a day at Versailles palace and magnificent gardens.

Hotel

Le Bristol Paris is quintessentially French in its elegant design, with inspiration that begins with Louis XV and continues with the haute couture that surrounds the hotel's fashionable address. Guests can step out into the very centre of Paris and return to rare relaxation in the French garden or rooftop pool, which families especially appreciate. The Michelin starred restaurants, beautiful spa and Le Bar du Bristol give guests the essence of an elite Parisian lifestyle.

Accommodation

Le Bristol Paris has 190 rooms and suites. All guestrooms display an individuality, designed with personal attention by the Oetker family and inspired by the ornate Louis XV period and simple grace of the Louis XVI. The grandest suites have wrought iron balconies, sunlit terraces and views over the L'Opéra, Eiffel Tower and Sacré Cœur. Suites can connect for up to four bedrooms, other features include steam rooms, a garden jacuzzi and private dining rooms for 12 guests.
