

THE ESSENCE

The Hotel Miramar Barcelona is an elaborate mix of classicism and innovation. Built on the occasion of the Universal Exposition of 1929 held in Barcelona, this palace was inaugurated by King Alfonso XIII and looks back on a long history, which is told from his long stint as host of the Spanish Radio and Television broadcasting studios, from 1959 to 1983. His story takes a dramatic turn in 2006 when the architect Oscar Tusquets Blanca is responsible for its remodeling. Tusquets' artistic vision and his particular interest in interior design, luxury and innovation, give the hotel a very personal air. While retaining the original facade of the old palace, is transformed into a unique space where comfort meets aesthetic perfectionism.

From its location on the mountain of Montjuïc, the views over the city and the Mediterranean Sea offer a framework of exceptional beauty. The hotel grounds offer unique retreats as the Patio de los Naranjos and the Garden of tipuanas which viewpoints allow contemplate the sea and the city.

Staying at the Hotel Miramar Barcelona is leaving the noise of the city to relax and enjoy the beautiful views of Barcelona and the sea. The feeling that comes over visitors is to be in a unique place, a space in which art is expressed through a sublime and unique design which history expressed through architecture. This luxury hotel combines the grandeur of the '20s with contemporary design. The result is a unique and artistically elegant restored palace and strategically located in the mountainside of Montjuïc. In addition to their views of the gardens, surprises with its proximity to Las Ramblas of Barcelona. The result is an intimate and exquisitely delicate placid hotel just 10 minutes from the trendy shops, restaurants and nightlife of the big city center.
