HALF DAY ACTIVITIES

CITY TOUR

Discover the most attractive areas of Buenos Aires led by an expert, such as 9 de Julio Avenue, the Obelisk, Plaza de Mayo, San Telmo, La Boca and Recoleta.

This tour will introduce you to a wide array of Buenos Aires neighborhoods and points of interest.

WALKING TOUR AT RECOLETA DISTRICT

Enjoy a pleasant break while you stroll at Recoleta, the most aristocratic and upper-class area in town.

You will have time to relax, walk around, have a coffee at one of the most traditional cafés in the area and you will visit the Recoleta cemetery with an insight of our history.

EVITA PERÓN TOUR

Contemporary Argentina cannot be understood without acknowledging the peronista emergence and its consequences. The tour visits the sites that can somehow explain the political and cultural conflicts that were brought about by the emergence of Juan D. Perón at the political arena. The tour focuses on Eva Duarte, her political performance, her tragic death and the continuity of her myth to these days. Some of the key sceneries of her life are here visited as well as the place where her corpse was mummified and the museum opened to commemorate her legacy.

This tour is not politically based and aims to recreate the life of Evita, a world-known character of our history.

POPE FRANCIS TOUR

This tour recreates the life of Pope Francis and all his work. You will be able to get to know who Jorge Mario Bergoglio is, by knowing the simplicity he lived in: his neighborhood, where he attended school and the churches where he was baptized and heard God's call.

ARCHITECTURE TOUR

Having borrowed the best from Europe, from its ancestry to its grand Italian and French architecture, Buenos Aires owe little in looks to their Latin American neighbors.

This city has never been shy of making big, structural statements, and boasts its fair share of neo-Classic and Renaissance palaces, wide sweeping avenues, passages, monumental bridges and public sculptures.

This is a visit through the superb architecture of the city, to raise the eyes and discover the most impressive buildings that few people know about.

ARTS TOUR

There is something very special about learning about a culture and its people through the language of Art.

We invite you to visit the main museums and art galleries in town escorted by an expert.

Within this tour, you will visit the Museum National of Fine Arts, which houses several of Argentina's finest painters; the MALBA (Latin American Art Museum), a magnificent constructed structure housing outstanding art from all the continent; Xul Solar Museum, featuring the work of this remarkable local artist; among others.

HISTORICAL JEWISH TOUR

The Buenos Aires Jewish community is of the largest in the world and its heritage remains very much preserved.

The tour guide, an active rabbi in the local community, will accompany you through this comprehensive tour that introduces us into the unique features of its culture.

You will explore the traditional Jewish neighborhood "Once" and the new AMIA building, the mutual fund organization whose previous head office suffered a terrorist attack in 1994 (reservations in advanced are required). You will also visit outstanding Ashkenazi and Sephardic temples as well as the site where the Israel Embassy used to stand prior to the 1992 attack.

TRENDS & DESIGN: SHOPPING IN BUENOS AIRES

The personal shopper service is designed to save you time with your shopping and to make your stay in Buenos Aires more pleasant.

The shopping expert will help you find special shops, give you up-to-the minute, attractive ideas and assist you with the language. A great idea to help you make the most of your time and the Buenos Aires' wide range of shops.

POLO DAY

Enjoy a bursting polo experience in a professional, friendly and relaxed atmosphere, only 45 minutes away from the city. You will watch a live polo game any day, taste a complete argentine barbeque and wine, and experience the incredible feeling of playing polo yourself!

DAY TRIPS

COLONIA DEL SACRAMENTO

This ancient XVII century village was declared Historical Patrimony of Humanity by UNESCO in 1995.

The Barrio Histórico (historic quarter) of Colonia del Sacramento is designated a World Heritage Site. There is frequent ferry service across the Río de la Plata with hydrofoils completing the journey in just 50 minutes. The historical section of Colonia, which has some cobblestone streets built by the Portuguese in the 17th century, is within walking distance of the ferry terminal. The main attractions are the Old City, the Port area, Fernando Beach, the Forest Reserve and the “Real de San Carlos” with its bullfight arena, Vasque-Ball court, horse racetrack and old docks.

A DAY AT AN ARGENTINE ESTANCIA

In the frame of a working fine estancia (ranch), you will find many activities developed in the Argentine countryside

You may take part of the activities you prefer most, relax with the scenery and the estancia’s prairie, horseback riding, biking and bird-watching are also available on daily basis.

You will be delighted with a traditional barbaque and afternoon tea before returning to the city.

FIESTA GAUCHA

Experience the Argentine “Pampas” visiting what once made the country’s economy strong and still is the base of its exports: the rural country-side. You will visit the traditional San Antonio de Areco, and later on head to a beautiful estancia, where you will enjoy a delicious Argentine barbecue.

Get acquainted with the folklore of the Pampas through its music and dance, the world of the Argentine cowboy, the Gaucho, and the traditional Argentine drink, the mate.

SAN ISIDRO & TIGRE

Be surprised by the verdant tranquility of this natural escape, just 45 minutes north of the city center.

You will be able to explore the fifth largest Delta in the world, leaving behind the bustle of Buenos Aires. This tour will also take you to the neighborhood of San Isidro, where you will visit the town’s historical center and cathedral on foot, and then you will finally see the city’s northern areas before returning to the Hotel.

Tuesday to Sunday: 11.00 am – 7.00 pm

TANGO

There should be very few things that define so clearly the “porteño” culture as tango. Tango dates back to the 19th century and was born on the shores of Buenos Aires. The traces of its melodies filled with the immigrants’ nostalgia exhibit unique cadences, a mix of habanera, andalucian tango, candombe and milonga. Tango was born as a transgressing music and it was prohibited for a long time due to its somewhat vulgar lyrics and sensual and provocative dance. Today, over one century later, Tango is the expression of Buenos Aires, the feeling of the people that seduces tourists from all over the world to the vibes of the “2 by 4”.

You may enjoy Tango in its different manifestations as Milongas-Tango Clubs where local people meet to dance with their own partners or others-, Tango Shows- where you may enjoy not only an outstanding show as a spectator but a traditional and tasteful diner as well-, or being part more deeply of this special feeling with Tango Lessons!

OUR FAVORITE TANGO SHOWS

ROJO TANGO

Probably the most upscale and exclusive show offered in Buenos Aires. This dynamic and bold show is presented every night at the Cabaret of the Faena Hotel + Universe. Its quality and service, both of the Show and dinner, makes for it to bet one of the best options in the city.

CAFÉ DE LOS ANGELITOS

Café de los Angelitos is a living witness of more than one hundred years of history of Buenos Aires, where the most outstanding personalities of political and artistic class of the twentieth century gathered. It brings an exceptional Tango Show, executed by a celebrated quintet; two singers and two couples of dancers who, for one hour and twenty minutes, unfold on an impressive stage a show that is unique in its kind.

SHOPPING

LEATHER GOODS

Leather goods are one of the highlights in the city. You might find anything from tailor made jackets to the most exclusive handmade Polo boots. These are some of our most recommended leather stores: Bettina Rizzi, Casa Lopez; Rossi y Caruso and Silvia y Mario. For leather shoes, you cannot miss Lopez Taibo, Guido and Correa.

THE SOHO

The neighborhood of Palermo has reinvented itself becoming the trendiest and hippest area in Buenos Aires, full of new young designer and deco stores. Our favorite boutiques are: Cecilia Gadea, Nadine Zlotogora, Jazmin Chebar, Maria Cher, Charlotte Solnicki, Mishka, Trosman and Cora Groppo.

MALLS

They are authentic centers of leisure. Besides luxury shopping opportunities, they have cinema complexes, playgrounds and food courts. They remain open until 10.00pm. You should not miss Patio Bullrich, Galerías Pacífico, Paseo Alcorta and Dot Baires, which is located 50 minutes away from downtown.

ANTIQUES

Antiques are another excellent buy in Argentina and San Telmo is the most recognized center for their purchase. Many of its old mansions have been turned into antique shops.

POLO GOODS

This upscale and fashionable game is an insignia of Argentine horses and country. Great Polo clothing may be found at La Martina, La Dolfina or Casablanca. If looking for specialized riding equipment, do not miss Arandu, 30 Yards, Aynié, Casa Villamil and Casa Zappala.

MARKETS & FAIRS

RESTAURANTS IN TOWN

ARGENTINE PARRILLAS: STEAK HOUSES

La Cabrera

Undoubtedly, one of the most popular restaurants in Buenos Aires. Half portions will be fine for even the hungriest, especially as 10-12 interesting side plates land on your table. Its sister restaurant, La Cabrera Norte, half a block away, has helped to cut waiting times a little, but reservation need to be made several days in advance.

📖 5099 Cabrera Street, Palermo.

For further details and pictures, please visit: www.parrillalacabrera.com.ar

Cabaña Las Lilas

Located in Puerto Madero, this restaurant is widely considered the best parrilla in Buenos Aires. The menu pays homage to Argentine beef, which comes from the restaurant's private estancia (ranch). They also offer a wide variety of wines with more than 900 labels.

📖 516 Alicia Moreau de Justo Avenue, Puerto Madero.

For further details and pictures, please visit: www.laslilas.com.ar

El Mirasol de la Recova

ARGENTINE MODERN CUISINE

Tegui

This swanky new hideout is tucked discreetly behind a (deliberately) graffitied wall and unassuming black door. Ring the bell and saunter into this home-turned-restaurant, which dazzles with its contemporary decor, accented by all things black and white. A wine cellar spans the entire front wall, forming an impressive backdrop to the larger-than-life ceilings. The open-air kitchen set towards the back of the restaurant allows diners to peer in on the catering process, and the VIP room, which borders the kitchen, presents guests with an exclusive dining experience compliment of head chef Germán Martitegui. A simple menu of three to four main courses typically includes meat or fish and changes weekly depending on the season and availability of ingredients.

📖 5852 Costa Rica Street, Palermo.

For further details and pictures, please visit: www.tegui.com.ar

Tarquino

Tucked away on a quiet block in the chic Recoleta neighborhood, the eclectic décor in the 40-seat restaurant hints at the atypical dining experience ahead: walls of faux fur in the front bar create a cozy feel, and a 75-year-old ficus tree juts through a glass roof in the main room.

The executive chef, Dante Liporace, 35, proposes modern Argentine cuisine using techniques he learned under Ferran Adrià at the now-shuttered El Bulli in Spain, such as molecular gastronomy.

📖 1963 Rodriguez Peña St, Recoleta

For further details and pictures, please visit: www.tarquinorestaurant.com.ar

Casa Cruz

One of the city's most fashionable restaurants. With its enormous polished-brass doors and lack of a sign on the door, you almost feel like you are entering a nightclub, and inside, the dark modern interior maintains the theme. The menu here is eclectic and interesting, overseen by Germán Martitegui

📖 1658 Uriarte Street, Palermo.

For further details and pictures, please visit: www.casa-cruz.com

Paraje Arévalo
