The Kempinski Palace enjoys a unique location in the very heart of Portoroz with a fantastic view of the Adriatic Sea. Close to the medieval pearl, the town of Piran and just a short drive from Trieste, Ljubljana and Venice, the hotel is ideally positioned for leisure, business and adventure.

Elegantly nestled in a historical park, the iconic Palace hotel dates back to the Austro-Hungarian Empire in 1910 and behind its grand Habsburg facade there is a unique blend of traditional and contemporary design by Jean Claude Laville.

The 5 star Superior hotel boasts 164 Superior and Deluxe rooms, 17 exclusive suites including a luxurious 230 sq m Presidential Suite and two rooftop Laguna Suites with open-air Jacuzzis.

All rooms and suites are spacious, superbly furnished in modern or traditional design with a park or a sea view and appointed with air-conditioning, selected toiletries, mini bar, in-room safe, LCD TVs and free wireless internet access.

Portoroz has been famous since the 13th century for its rich spa tradition. Today the Kempinski Rose Spa, a pure oasis of tranquillity situated on 1500 sq m, offers well-known luxury brands, revitalizing treatments, connected indoor and outdoor swimming pools, Jacuzzis, Turkish, Finnish and infrared saunas.

Savour top-class culinary creations in restaurant Sophia, dedicated to the miraculous beauty of the Italian diva Sophia Loren, enjoy modern cuisine and delicious pastries in restaurant Fleur de Sel and partake of the lavish breakfast buffet in the magnificent Crystal ballroom until 12:00.
