

Exclusive from the very start, the Royalton began as upscale residences overlooking 43rd and 44th Streets before becoming the sophisticated boutique hotel it is today. A canvas showcasing the work of well-known design firm Roman and Williams, the Royalton plays with light and texture to create an intimate and urbane mood. From the moment you walk through the door, the Royalton exudes cool with a touch of the mysterious and debonair, while offering its guests exclusive apartment-style rooms, luxurious suites and penthouse accommodations, each furnished with the finest amenities.
