NATIONAL

HANDEL

Located in the heart of Moscow, Hotel National is surrounded by iconic historical sights, including Red Square, the Kremlin, St. Basil's Cathedral, the Pushkin Museum of Fine Arts, Bolshoi Theater, and the Cathedral of Christ the Savior and major shopping centers, such as TSUM and GUM.

STEEPED IN HISTORY

Constructed by the famed Russian architect Alexander Ivanov, a member of The Emperor Academy of Arts, Hotel National welcomed its first guests in 1903. The hotel's more than a century history is closely intertwined with the tumultuous events of the twentieth century. Over the years, the hotel's guests have included heads of state and government, diplomats and businessmen, military officials, scientists, writers and musicians. The history of the National is a journey into a past rich in events.

BREAKFAST

MOSKOVSKY HALL

Guests can indulge a divine gourmet breakfast with sparkling wine and caviar at historical Moskovsky hall with panoramic views of the main city attraction - the Kremlin.

DINING

ALEXANDROVSKY BAR

The relaxed atmosphere of Bar Alexandrovsky makes it a popular meeting point for the business elite.

The Bar provides the ideal ambience for both business meetings and private get-togethers.

Our guests can choose from a wide selection of spirits and indulge in original homemade cakes.

DINING

BELUGA RESTAURANT

The “Beluga Restaurant” is the first restaurant of Russian delicacies and caviar brasserie. The restaurant has the most luxurious caviar bar in the world.

There are dozens of all different types of caviar, served both as the esthetic tasting sets, and as the nostalgic sandwiches with butter.

DINING

GRAND CAFE "DR. ZHIVAGO"

The place is about to prove that Russian cuisine can be modern and this restaurant following a purely Russian concept appears to be surprisingly fashionable and stylish.

Even the dishes that every Russian remembers from the early childhood sound differently here, turned into a real delicacy. The chef adds some unexpected details into every dish creating a fresh witty variation of the classic recipes and giving each of them a luxurious twist.

MEETING ROOMS

A selection of 13 private meeting rooms and halls can be tailored to suit any occasion.

Meeting rooms (Moskovsky, Yaroslavl, Susdal) with floor-to-ceiling windows featuring iconic views of the Kremlin and Red Square.

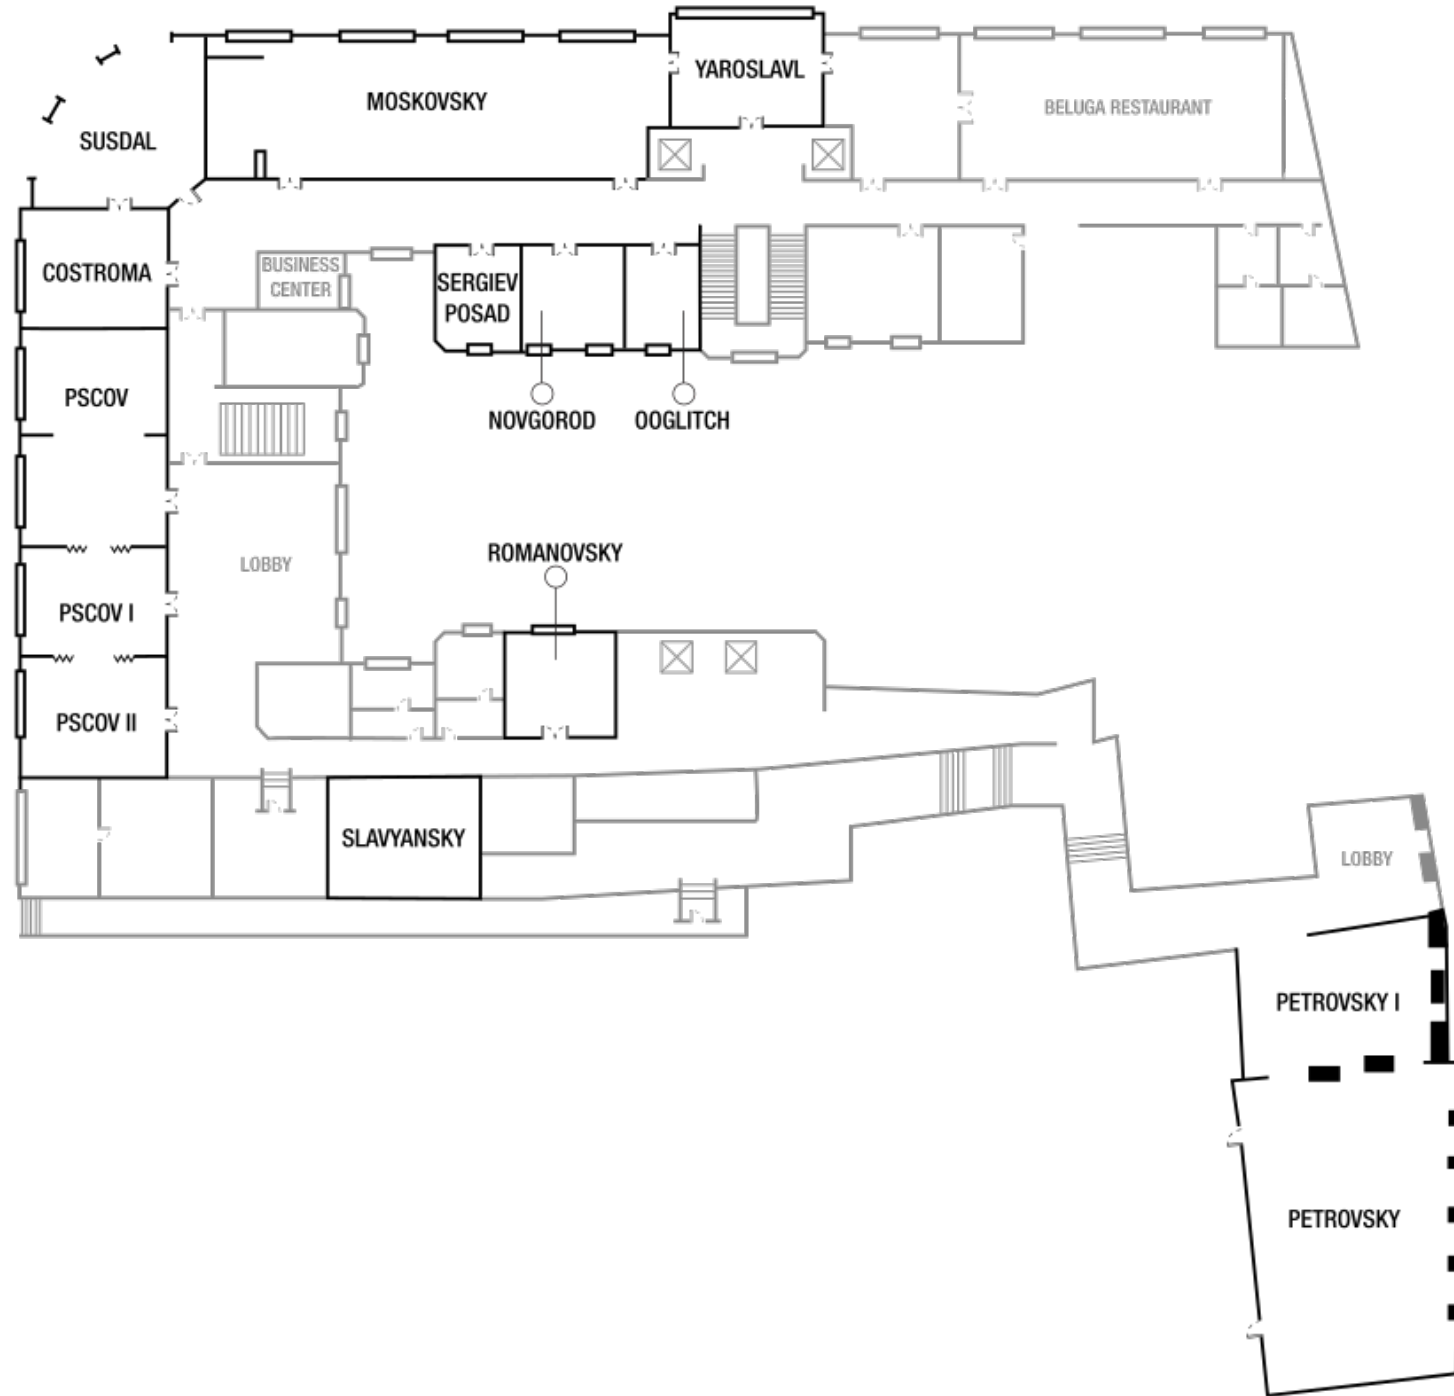

One multi-function meeting area consisting of three meeting rooms, Pscov, Pscov I, and Pscov II, which can be utilized on their own or interconnected to form a large hall.

A wide range of audio-visual equipment is available for meetings and conferences.
