Lotte Hotel St. Petersburg

Introduction

The new five-star Lotte Hotel St. Petersburg is located in an old mansion near the Mariinsky Palace on St. Isaac's Square. The house has a rich history. It was first mentioned in historical records in 1802. For several years of its history it had served as the private residence of the first U.S. Ambassador to the Russian Empire, John Quincy Adams, who was later to become the sixth President of the USA. In the mid-19th century, the honourable citizen of Petersburg Madam Yakunchikova purchased the mansion. On September, 15th 2017 Lotte Hotels & Resorts opened the brand new luxury hotel. Lotte Hotel St. Petersburg is the first Lotte Hotel ever to be housed in a historic building. It features 150 rooms, decorated in classic and contemporary styles, The Lounge, an elegant restaurant with a stained-glass dome; MEGUmi, the first premium class Japanese restaurant in St. Petersburg; L Terrasa, a terrace bar with a spectacular view of St. Isaac's Square; and a Balinese spa salon called Mandara Spa. Four-metre high ceilings create the perfect space for a relaxing holiday, while cinematic views of St. Isaac's Square, Mariinsky Palace and Moika embankment provide an invaluable gift for all the guests of the new first-class hotel.

Interiors and accommodation

The 150 hotel rooms have been designed in great detail by NHDC studio. The interiors feature several types of marble and natural wood, luxury Italian furniture, exclusive textiles, 100% wool English carpets and 11 different types of pillows filled with goose down, sheep wool, lavender and mint blend, etc. It offers two stylistic concepts: the “classic” rooms on the second and third floors of the hotel, and the contemporary design rooms on the fourth and fifth floors. The 7 suites, including a spacious presidential suite with an area of 216 m², provide the special feature of the hotel. Careful attention is paid to personal care products: there are Molton Brown beauty product sets to be found in all rooms along with special BVLGARI sets for the suites. A magnificent stained glass chandelier and a five-meter painting of the Church of the Savior on Blood were especially created for the hotel lobby.

Dining

Lotte Hotel St. Petersburg offers 3 different gastronomy concepts. The menu in MEGUMI restaurant of modern Japanese cuisine is based on both classic and original recipes created by the chef Ban Munechika. MEGUMI is the first premium class Japanese restaurant in St. Petersburg. The restaurant's iconic dishes include Wagyu beef, prepared and served on a hot volcanic stone from mount Fuji. The restaurant uses specially created hand-painted Japanese Nikko porcelain.

Facilities

THE LOUNGE

The Lounge restaurant offers a different culinary experience: the head chef of the hotel, Anatoly Ivanov, has created a menu fused of Mediterranean, Pan-Asian, Mexican and traditional Russian recipes. The eating experience in The Lounge is complemented with the elegant interior. The majestic stained glass dome decorated with Oriental lilies made by Italian masters creates a special atmosphere. Complex stained glass techniques, tall columns, abundant light materials and greatly detailed thoughtful lighting all contribute to making The Lounge one of the most elegant restaurants in St. Petersburg.

Mandara Spa

The famous Mandara Spa brand not only offers a network of spas, but represents a unique Balinese body care tradition. Asian medicine secrets, ancient methods, special beauty philosophy along with modern cosmetology achievements and the best masseurs invited to St. Petersburg from Bali all create excellent reasons for visiting the Fitness equipment of well-known Italian brand Technogym, as well as attentive attitude of professional instructors, will help to reach the goals and to fill the life with energy.

Gym

Banquet halls

Featuring two banquet halls Pushkin 117 m² with large windows for natural daylight and Charlotte 75 m² equipped with state-of-the-art technology Lotte Hotel St. Petersburg is the perfect venue for family celebration, wedding or business event.

L TERRASA

For those who fancy champagne with a background of astounding panoramic views, L Terrasa bar was created on the sixth floor of the hotel. The bar's terrace rightfully claims the top rank among the city's best viewpoints: what could beat the spectacular views of St. Isaac's Cathedral, Nicholas I monument, the Moika River and the panoply of St. Petersburg roofs?

Mandara Spa. Along with short treatments, the spa also offers complex holistic rituals.
