GRAND VISCONTI PALACE Milan

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WAS A MILL...

Grand Visconti Palace is a sober and refined "city resort", where the charm of the tradition blends in perfect harmony with the elegance of the most modern comforts of hospitality. The hotel covers an area of 12,000 sqm, that in the 1920's boasted an ancient flour mill, "Mulino Verga". The ear of wheat featured as a graphical element in the hotel's logo is an homage to the history of the building.

The deep relationship with the history of Milan is highlighted by the choice of the name of the hotel, that refers to the name of the important family: the "Visconti", the head of the most powerful state in thirteenth and fourteenth century Italy, as well by the the Meeting Rooms of Congress Center, that are named after the main Milan's gates, Porta Romana, Porta Vittoria and Porta Ticinese. These gates represented in the past the defence against enemies as well as a meeting point to welcome friends.
