Welcome to Siam Kempinski Hotel Bangkok

Ideally situated in the heart of the famous shopping and entertainment hub, the hotel is the ultimate destination for both business and leisure travelers

Alluring Oasis in Elegant Surroundings

Like an oasis in the heart of world-renowned Bangkok - Siam Kempinski Hotel offers a large landscaped garden with multiple saltwater pools and elegant water features. Relaxed and tranquil, guests are treated to the ultimate resort-like experience while the most impressive shopping and entertainment complex beckons next door.

Art constitutes a vital part of the hotel identity and design. We are home to one of the largest collections of Thai art in the region, with more than 4,000 paintings, sculptures, photographs, prints, installations, objects d'art and antiques decorating its interior. Thai artistic traditions and culture blend seamlessly with our architecture, lush garden and interior design.

As you step into our grand lobby, you will immediately be impressed with the majestic 14m-high glass doorways and pillars adorned with brass lamp cones formed like the decorative fingernails of traditional Thai dancers. Comfortable seating and relaxation areas are artfully designed for guests who want to linger, while the sole objective of our caring staff is to fulfill your memorable home-away-from-home experience.

SRA BUA by KIIN KIIN

A new dimension in Thai fine dining

Siam Kempinski Hotel Bangkok's signature restaurant, Sra Bua by Kiin Kiin, appeals to patrons with a one-of-a-kind dining experience, applying the art of modern cooking techniques and dish presentation while preserving the authentic taste of Thai cuisine. Conceptualised by Chef Henrik Yde-Andersen, whose Thai Restaurant – Kiin Kiin in Denmark is the only Michelin-starred in the world, Sra Bua offers an innovative culinary journey through an exquisite meal that promises to delight every palate.

Asian or Non-Asian, a blend of continents where the product is the center of attention.

Niche is a venue for fun-filled informal dining where guests may choose their favourite ingredient and decide upon an Asian or Non-Asian presentation. We encourage guests to make multiple selections in order to enjoy the tremendous variety on the menu. The size of each portion encourages diners to select a variety of dishes and compare.

A trendy meeting point

Residing in our majestic lobby, Hanuman Bar is the perfect place for a variety of activities from morning until late night. Freshly brewed coffee in the morning served with delicious homemade snacks, quick delectable lunches, scrumptious afternoon tea, fine wines, rare spirits and evening cocktails with live music or pre and post-dinner champagne are served here to delight both businessmen on the go and leisure guests alike.

Offers light meals and refreshing drinks in mesmerising scenery by the swimming pools.

GYM

A wooden floor and panels, overlooking the beautiful garden, our Gym offers guests the latest cardio and Balanced Body equipment, along with professional personal trainers. Enjoy an invigorating workout anytime you like in either the natural light during the day or the stunning colorful views of Bangkok's skyline at night. Complimentary fitness activities including yoga, aerobics and Muay Thai are available on schedule.

Serenity in a Garden

A true oasis in the middle of Bangkok's busiest shopping and entertainment district, our majestic gardens which were part of the Sra Pathum Palace (Lotus Pond Palace) in the 19th century, await to indulge you with an array of refreshments and inspired cocktails, complemented by the gracious pampering from our friendly staff.

Kempinski Kids Club welcomes children aged from 3 to 12. Whether entertained by art projects or games, the children will be in the care of our qualified staff who will always find something fun for the children to do at the club.

Meanwhile parents are invited to watch their children take part in the Kempinski Junior Chef Programme - Bangkok's first ever cooking school exclusively for kids.
