RESTAURANT

CHAPTER is a unique restaurant that rewrites the traditional concept of a typical three-meal outlet. It exudes an interesting "food library" ambience, in conjunction with the grand Library stairs, presenting four authentic experiences in an innovative and distinctive setting.

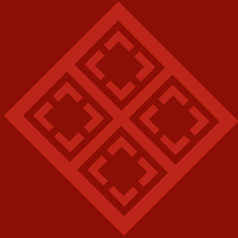

CHAPTER cuisine will be known for its extreme consciousness and distinction in being so true, so simple that it becomes its own attribute

Named after China's Sage of Tea, Lu Yu is a Chinese restaurant defined by a dramatic towering two-storey wall decorated with different types of Chinese tea, guests can sip a pre-dinner infusion. Diners can choose to enjoy their meal in the elegant main dining room or private dining rooms for up to 20 guests, where chefs prepare your meal at personal show kitchens.
