Dublin, Ireland

CITYWEST

HOTEL • LEISURE • EVENTS

Dublin - The capital city of Ireland is a modern, vibrant and fun town. It's culture and friendliness are reflected in the warm welcome of its citizens. As the gateway to Europe, Ireland is blessed with lush, green landscapes, Viking cities, historical architecture and a variety of famous distilleries.

Dublin also offers state-of-the-art communications and infrastructure to cater for the business visitor. In Ireland we say that "all roads lead to Dublin" and nothing could be truer as it is linked with a network of high quality motorways to all corners of Ireland.

History

The GPO:
The GPO has significant historic value, being the focal point of the 1916 Rising and is still the headquarters of the Irish Post Office.

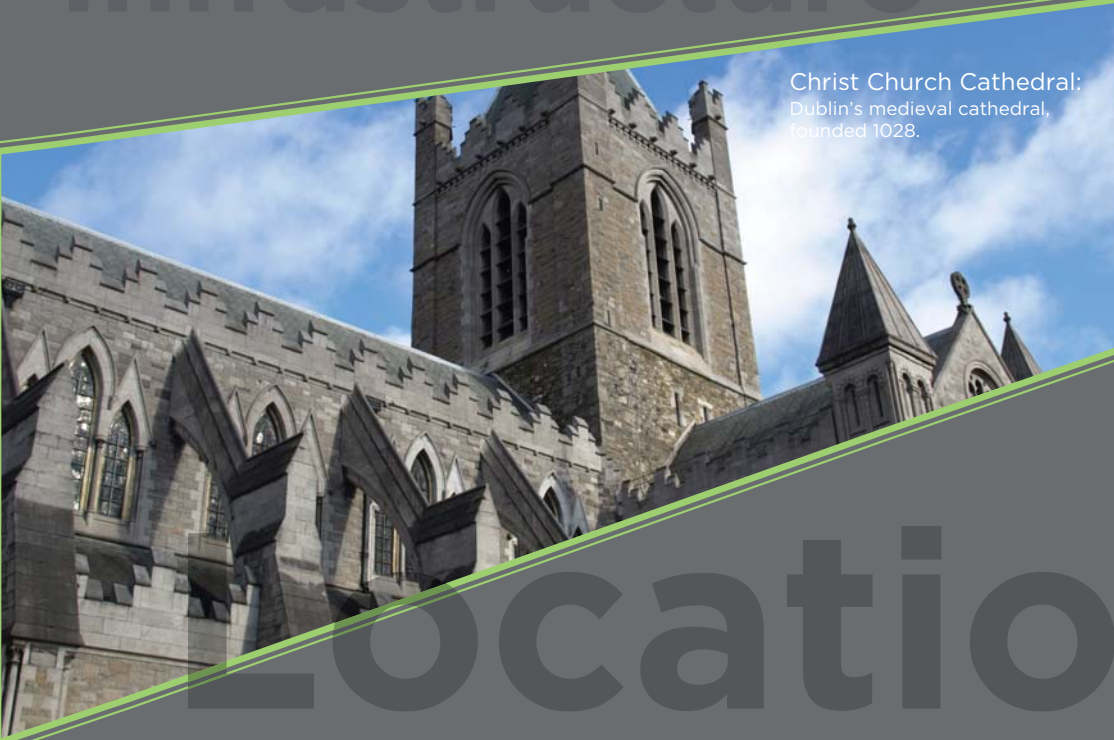

O'Connell Bridge:
Spanning the River Liffey in Dublin

History

Culture

Dublin's unique balance of culture, people, strategic location and amenities has ranked it as one of the best cities in the world to host a conference. Citywest Hotel has played a major role in this success by providing a world-class venue with a truly flexible "can do" approach that has attracted some of the world's most prestigious conferences and events.

Infrastructure

Christ Church Cathedral:
Dublin's medieval cathedral,
founded 1028.

Samuel Beckett Bridge:
The shape of the spar and its cables is said to evoke an image of a harp lying on its edge.

Location

Dublin Airport - Approximately 20 minutes from Citywest Hotel. With direct flights from almost all major European and international airports, Dublin is the central hub for Europe's largest airline company.
