Starwood Preferred Guest® (SPG) is one of the best loyalty programmes in the hotel sector, offering the greatest number of privileges, including the ability to get a Gold or Platinum status for the whole life. Its members can benefit from the discounts of up to 30% in more than a thousand restaurants and bars, and 400 hotels for the whole year, collecting points at the same time. Starpoints are offered also for organised meetings, conferences and group stays. Starpoints® can be exchanged e.g. for free nights, airline miles, gift cards or transferred for charity. Thanks to SPG Moments, the points can be exchanged for the admission tickets to the outstanding events, like global film first nights, concerts of the best artists, leading sports events and unforgettable meetings with distinguished chefs from the restaurants awarded Michelin stars. Collect points, exchange them for prizes and use SPG Life privileges.

For the meeting organisers, tourist sector employees and assistants, Starwood chain introduced an innovative SPG Pro® programme which facilitates quick collection of points for booked meetings and accommodation. For companies which have no global contracts, the chain prepared SPG Business programme.

WARSAW

Warsaw is a dynamically developing metropolis. It houses not only the seats of the state authorities but also headquarters of international corporations and the biggest Polish companies. This is the capital of Poland, and of the Polish art, culture, science and business. Here the most important cultural, government, academic and business institutions are located. Unique monuments, interesting museums and galleries, picturesque parks, friendly residents, numerous attractions and perfect infrastructure appeal to the visitors.
