DESTINATION

Smile you're in Sharjah ... has been Sharjah's slogan for so many years positioning it among cities of the world. As the smile is the natural emotional response to those who come to visit Sharjah. It is the Emirate that combines the traditional past and the modern presence. It's a mix that reflects the uniqueness of the emirate.

Sharjah has developed a new framework that specifies the characteristics of the next phase of innovation, Sharjah is no more the quiet and safe place only, but it continued to develop tourism as well as education and culture and it is also known for all its cultural heritage, economic attractiveness of investments and its endeavor to become Sharjah my destination. Sharjah is crowned as Capital of Islamic culture for 2014 in recognition of its remarkable contributions in preserving, promoting and disseminating culture.

It preserved the authenticity of heritage as the ancient monuments, fort, and museums are the witness of the glorious past. There are also so many places for entertainment and traditional markets (souks) in addition to modern shopping malls. All contributed for Sharjah to become a destination of memorable family times ... It is a city characterized by social attractiveness and boasts Arab and Islamic architecture too. At the same time it is a developed city with the most modern means of social welfare. It is also a promising economic city as it is attractive for business investments.
