

MEETINGS + EVENTS

Welcome to Kimpton Fitzroy London – where grand, Victorian architecture meets a thoroughly modern sensibility. Charles Fitzroy Doll’s original hotel building from 1898 has lashings of character and drama, and the current restoration project has restored it to its original splendour, from the galleried lobby and sweeping marble staircase to the new Palm Court and the double-height ballroom.

All of our meeting and event spaces have natural daylight and original features, alongside all of the services we know you expect of a modern, business-savvy hotel.

Nothing can prepare you for the scale and variety that you’ll find when you visit Kimpton Fitzroy London, but we hope this preview gives you a sense of what’s in store.

A PARTY PALACE

London has nine meeting and event spaces that range from the grandeur of the listed Ballroom to the relative intimacy of panelled boardrooms on the lower ground floor. Regardless of the size of your event, we'll work with you to ensure it's seamless. As you'd expect of a newly refurbished hotel, AV and IT have been integrated into the rooms so that you can connect with technology at the swipe of a screen. Wi-Fi is fast and free, of course, and our Exec Chef has created new menus for every occasion.

Kimpton Fitzroy London

Dressed up, not buttoned up.

Following an £85 million restoration and refurbishment, Kimpton Fitzroy London is delivering a much-needed shot of adrenaline to Bloomsbury in central London. All 334 guest rooms and suites have been elegantly re-designed by Tara Bernerd & Partners, whose remit to breathe life into one of London's grand-dame hotels can be seen to spectacular effect in the Palm Court, which lies at the heart of the hotel (in every sense). Elsewhere, Russell Sage Studios have conjured up magic in Fitz's bar and mythology in Neptune, a neighbourhood restaurant with charm and chutzpah.
