At the heart of the Corinthia brand lies the Corinthia Palace Hotel & Spa in Malta. Originally a 19th Century art-deco villa, Alfred Pisani and his family opened the Corinthia Palace in 1962 as a fine-dining restaurant, later transformed into one of Malta's first luxury hotels.

The Corinthia Palace Hotel & Spa was built by a modest team of workers, which included the Pisani brothers themselves, who were responsible for laying the hotel foundations brick-by-brick with their own bare hands. Fuelled by a vision of crafted hospitality, the Spirit of Corinthia was born.

IN THE BEGINNING: FANFARE!

The hotel was opened amidst much fanfare. Among the notable guests present was HRH Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh.

IN THE BEGINNING: THE SWINGING 60s

The sleek style of the 1960s was evident in the elegant lines of the hotel's interior. A lot has changed since then, but we've kept the same passion for warm, inviting hospitality that we've held since we first opened our doors.

IN THE BEGINNING: TECHNO-LOGIC

Back then, our rooms and suites were the epitome of style and elegance. Hop forward 50 years and they're still as spacious and comfortable, but now we dream in Technicolor, not just black and white.

MALTA: THE WORLD'S OLDEST MEETING PLACE

The Maltese Islands offer a distinctive blend of the modern and the authentically antique. This EU member state is situated in the heart of the Mediterranean Sea, and has often been credited with having the World's best climate. It is just three hours away by plane from the main European cities.

For over 7000 years, Malta has been a popular meeting place. Established as a point of congregation long before the advent of technology, the pre-historic temples on the Islands were utilised for ritualistic meetings by ancient civilisations. Nowadays, Malta, Gozo and Comino are hosts to a number of corporate and association conferences, as well as incentive events.

VALLETTA – EUROPEAN CAPITAL OF CULTURE 2018

Malta's Capital was built by the Knights of St John following the Great Siege of 1565. A city packed with ancient monuments juxtaposed by modern bars and restaurants, jostling with art galleries and music venues, it's not hard to see why Valletta has been crowned the European Capital of Culture 2018.

THE GRAND HARBOUR

MDINA – THE SILENT CITY

The romance, the legend, the mystery! It's all waiting to be explored, albeit it quietly, in Mdina – The Silent City... shhhhhh!

GOZO – ONLY AN ISLAND AWAY

Gozo, meaning 'joy' in Castilian, is often referred to as the Mediterranean's best kept secret.

COMINO – THE BLUE LAGOON

Virtually uninhabited, the island of Comino is a small slice of unspoiled, Mediterranean splendour.

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION!

Corinthia Palace Hotel & Spa: surrounded by the Three Villages of Attard, Balzan and Lija and situated opposite the President's Palace and adjacent San Anton Gardens, our hotel is enveloped in history, prestige and tradition.

Located just minutes from the medieval 'silent city' of Mdina and the cultural ambience of Valletta, Corinthia Palace Hotel & Spa is the gateway into the heart of historic Malta.

BESPOKE EVENTS AT VILLA CORINTHIA

Villa Corinthia offers a unique backdrop for any type of event. With its Corinthian and Doric columns, the stunning Italianate villa was built as a family home in 1920 by the then Maltese Chief Justice, Professor Sir Michaelangelo Refalo.

After the war, the Villa operated for a few years as the boutique 'Royal Hotel' and is now one of Malta's most flexible event spaces, be it for conferences, celebrations, meetings or fashion shows.

PRIVATE MALTA

Beyond the island's closed doors

Launched by Corinthia Palace Hotel & Spa, 'Private Malta' takes visitors behind many of the closed doors of Malta and Valletta, European Capital of Culture, 2018.

'Private Malta' will give guests a chance to see the Maltese Islands like never before.

This unique programme has a plethora of highlights, including private visits to the spectacular St John's Cathedral, a yacht tour of the Grand Harbour, and a musical performance in a Palazzo.

Malta goes upmarket

Private Malta is a new pre or post trip or shore excursion launched this year that showcases the most stunning and historic private residences and palazzos on the island. Targeted at culture vultures, it has been launched by the five-star Corinthia Palace

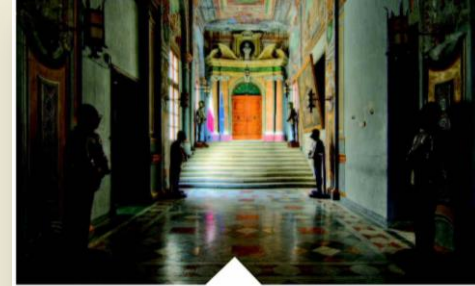

Hotel & Spa, which is located between the capital Valletta and the old town of Mdina.

It can either be a full four-day small group private tour of the most historic parts of Malta, with accommodation at the hotel.

Alternatively, it can be a half-day or full-tour excursion including lunch and/or refreshments. One private home is the stunning Casa Rocca Piccola, a 16th century palace belonging to a Maltese noble family. Its owner the Marquis de Piro leads the tour.

CORINTHIA PALACE HOTEL & SPA

and beyond3sixty have launched an exclusive four-day 'Private Malta' programme that takes guests behind the closed doors of Malta's historic private homes and Palazzos and offers private tours around the island, including 'the silent city' of Mdina and the baroque capital Valletta. Guests will be escorted by personal guides and local experts and highlights include a private musical performance and an exclusive visit to St. John's Cathedral and Caravaggio's only signed masterpiece with an art historian. Departure dates are from March 19-23; June 7-11 and September 10-14, with prices from €2,320 per person. It includes accommodation at the five-star Corinthia Palace in a deluxe room; all meals, receptions and refreshments as per the itinerary; all visits, excursions, musical recitals, entrance fees, and transport; the services of a local guide and guest experts; plus all local taxes.
