Leisure

Local attractions

Saarlouis is unofficially referred to as the capital of the Saarland state. The cheerful town centre, with its fortification, crooked narrow streets, pubs and shops, is no more than a five-minute drive away from our hotel. A swimming pool and park with jogging trails are also just a stone's throw away.

We would be pleased to advise you on additional activities that you can build into or around your event. Please contact us for further details about our range of incentive packages and team events.
