SPACE TO EXPAND IDEAS

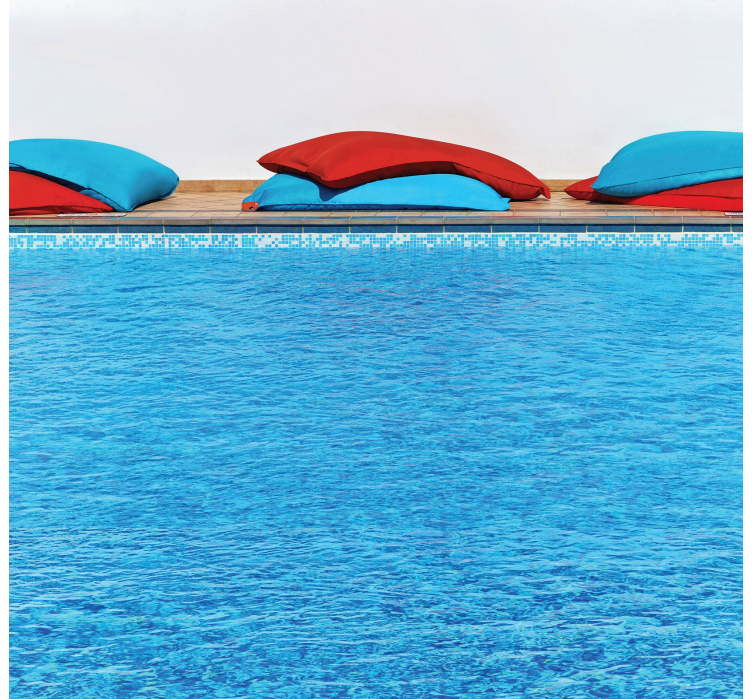

With its 1,000 m² of conference space, Le Méridien Nice has unlimited potential for organising meetings and events. All the meeting rooms are on the same floor and most offer exposure to natural light. The assembly room, Le Vallauris, can accommodate 600 people when it is arranged theatre-style. For luncheons, cocktail parties and dinners, Le Méridien Nice has a room with an ocean view, Le Riviera, as well as the private beach operated by its partner Ruhl Beach, which is across from the hotel (available for events from May to October).

INSPIRING CUISINE

LA TERRASSE, A RESTAURANT + LOUNGE BAR
La Terrasse restaurant is located on the roof of the hotel, where it invites guests throughout the year to taste the inventive dishes proposed by Executive Chef Eric Brujan in a unique setting with breathtaking views. Here, local and seasonal products are deftly reinterpreted to create an inspiring culinary experience. In the lounge area, a menu of Sparkling cocktails brings an original twist to the aperitif; in the summer the ambiance pulses to the beat of DJ sets.

LE COLONIAL CAFE
Ideally located on the first floor of Le Méridien Nice with a panoramic view of the sea and the lights of the city, Le Colonial Café offers a cosy environment. The creative coffee drink menu and the tea-time set the tone for an energising break, and the Sparkling menu invites to a revitalizing after-work. Free Wi-Fi at Le Colonial Café.

SITUATED FOR DISCOVERY

Just a stone's throw from the city's most fascinating sites, such as Old Nice, the Promenade des Anglais, luxury boutiques and the restaurant and bar districts, Le Méridien Nice is also a perfect home base for exploring the French Riviera and its hinterland, cliff-top villages, and ski resorts (in the winter!) and all the sites that have inspired artists and continue to cast their spell.
