

3
to one

Our staff to guest ratio. Housekeepers to chefs, porters to waiters, spa therapists to sommeliers – all dedicated to creating memorable and unique experiences for each and every guest. We pride ourselves on over 40 years of gracious English hospitality. The relationship between heritage and evolution makes Chewton Glen an exceptional hotel that constantly surprises.

39
hours

The time needed to mow the lawns each week. Our team of gardeners create a stunning backdrop for your stay. As well as providing the view from your bedroom, balcony or terrace the grounds offer guests and their families a number of pastimes – golf, tennis, swimming, croquet, clay pigeon shooting...

10 minutes

The walk from the hotel to the beach. Chewton Glen is bordered on one side by the New Forest. On the other lies the Solent, the stretch of water separating mainland England from the Isle of Wight.

1079

ad

The year in which William the Conqueror declared the 38,000 hectares of the New Forest as his own Royal hunting ground. More than 900 years on it is still preserved as a National Park with 3744 wild ponies roaming freely, along with cattle, pigs and donkeys. This medieval woodland provides a magical playground for guests at Chewton Glen.

40
sq metres

The average size of our smallest bedrooms (a couple are smaller – the majority are much bigger). All are individually designed and equipped to a world-class standard. The antique, the classic and the contemporary combine to create a feeling of timeless elegance.

35
feet

The height above ground level when you are stood on your private deck overlooking the Forest. Built high among the trees of a secluded valley, each Treehouse is an unforgettable setting for unwinding, for relaxing, for simply being.

100 degrees

The temperature at which the Mint Julep cocktail is served before ice is added. The Mint Julep originated in the southern states of America. It was Captain Marryat, the famous novelist and former Chewton Glen resident, who first introduced the cocktail to the British Isles. Over 150 years later, you can still enjoy his discovery in Tinkers Bar.

3<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>
food miles

To Mundeford Quay where most of our fish is landed. Where possible, we source our produce locally, some of which is from our own kitchen garden and orchard where we grow over 80 varieties. From an informal al fresco lunch to a gastronomic banquet, experience the finest ingredients delivered with passion and pride.

7 days

The time you would need to enjoy all our treatments. Our experienced professionally trained staff are dedicated to providing innovative therapies and treatments using specialist skin and body care products. Relax in the sanctuary of the spa and rediscover the pleasure of time well spent.

120 minutes

Design by Bloom Design. www.bloom-design.com

The distance by car from Chewton Glen to Cliveden, our sister hotel. Cliveden was built in 1666 by George Villiers and the Duke of Buckingham, as a hunting lodge to entertain his mistress and friends.

Visit the Chewton Glen website www.chewtonglen.com for further information on the hotel and to download local travel directions, which will help you to avoid possible traffic delays in Lyndhurst, on your journey to the hotel.

New Forest Hampshire England BH25 6QS
Telephone +44 (0)1425 275341 Fax +44 (0)1425 272310
US Toll Free Tel: 1 800 344 5087 US Toll Free Fax: 1 800 398 4534
reservations@chewtonglen.com www.chewtonglen.com

