DEAD SEA THE FIRST NATURAL SPA IN THE WORLD

At 410 meters below sea level, Dead Sea is the lowest place on earth. A large amount of investment in the area has provided the Dead Sea with new roads and luxurious 5 and 4 star hotels and an award winning conference center.

Studies have shown the combination of the Dead Sea water and the rich black mud have significant health benefits such as increasing blood circulation, easing discomfort from arthritis, healing allergies and revitalizing skin.

FEATURES

THE DESIGN

The design of the resort seeks to take full advantage of the beautiful setting on the Dead Sea and at the same time respecting the balance between the natural site and the building.

The massing, the footprint and the orientation of each building have been carefully studied and the resulting architecture exudes a relaxing yet sophisticated hotel experience that will be in tune with its surroundings.

MAIN BUILDING

The main building including the hotel lobby is located in the centre, providing a strong connection at the arrival of the guests to the 4 resort wings (Petra, Madaba, Jerash, Ajloun), King Hussein Bin Talal Convention Centre managed by Hilton and the beach.
